Approach

We can represent bombs using a directed graph - when a bomb i can detonate bomb j, there is an edge from i to j. Note that the opposite may not be true.

We generate this graph (al), and, starting from each node, we run BFS (or DFS) and find out how many nodes we can reach.